DESCRIPTION:

i Love To Care (India) Charitable Trust is a volunteer organization to engage, encourage, motivate and promote responsible public, government, non-government, private and public sector to focus on various environmental and socio-economic developmental projects those are aligned with ALL 17 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

i Love To Care (India) Charitable Trust NGO conducted a de-weeding program in Machohalli Reserve Forest on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanthi on 2nd October 2021. The students of Department of Mechatronics, Acharya Institute of Technology, Bengaluru participated in this drive to clean and beautify the Machohalli Reserve Forest by collecting heaps of plastic and garbage. The Forest officials and wardens gave the students and insight to the reserve forest and its need in the present day urban jungles. The forest is home to several wild animals, birds and insects and its protection is of utmost need for ecological balance.
